

MILL CREEK COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION BOARD ELECTIONS

Dawn Rosenthal

Dawn is committed to ensuring that the MCCA continues to be a highly desirable place for current and future residents. She is a member of both the Trail Ambassadors and Covenant Committee. When not volunteering with MCCA or walking in the Nature Preserve with her beloved Pomeranians, she lends her time and skills to the DECA organization, which offers innovative career development resources for high school and college students. Professionally, Dawn has 25+ years working in communications and operational excellence for organizations such as T-Mobile, Liberty Mutual Insurance, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Dawn and her husband have lived in Winslow since 2009.

Sid Siegel

Sid is an active volunteer who has served MCCA in many roles, including as a Nominating Committee member, Board member, Chair of the Inspection and Engineering Committee, President of the Belvedere Place Association, and currently as MCCA Board President. He believes strong communities are built by neighbors who generously share their time, experience, and talents. Sid's professional career spans the technology industry, where he worked as a software developer, systems and enterprise architect, and manager of large healthcare data projects. He later earned his MBA from the University of Washington, further strengthening his leadership and business expertise. Sid values collaboration and believes the best HOA decisions come from listening to diverse perspectives and working together within MCCA's governing documents to achieve the best outcomes for the community. He and his wife, Kim, have lived in Belvedere Place for nine years and enjoy spending time with their grandchildren and walking their dog, George, through the neighborhood.

Mel Silver

Mel is a seasoned international sales executive with a passion for building long-term client relationships, leading high-performing global teams, and delivering outstanding customer service. Throughout his career, he has consistently exceeded revenue goals, developed motivated teams, and successfully managed complex international programs. His strong communication skills, technical expertise, and experience in both the private and nonprofit sectors make him well qualified to serve on the MCCA Board. Mel and his wife, Arlene, have called Washington home since 1993 and moved to Fairway Village I in 2012. They have two children and four grandchildren. Mel served as President of the Fairway Village I Board from 2020 to 2023 and has served as an MCCA Board Member for the past two years.

Kristi Zevenbergen

Kristi has lived in the MCCA since 1991. She lived in the Huckleberry Division until 2013 before relocating to Evergreen in 2013 where she currently resides. Kristi has been an active MCCA Volunteer for 13 years and has served on the Board since 2019. Her professional experience is in Public Accounting for 45 years and hobbies include, jewelry making, quilting and gardening. Kristi believes communities are best when people connect, volunteer and remain active members within the community.
